

I am an Amateur Radio operator, license NQ4Z. I got my license the hard way, upgrading through both written and code tests, including the 20wpm Extra. I do not feel that licenses should be upgraded just because someone has held the license for 20 years. An upgrade should be earned through testing.